Program Talk

The prime prime-time program in this Folio is surely THE SOUL OF THE WHITE ANT, an unforgettable study in science. Produced by the South African Broadcasting Corporation, this hour-long documentary is a dramatic approach to the psychology of insects. It is based upon the South African book by Eugene Marais who spent ten years in northern Transvaal studying white ants, or as southern Californians know them — termites. We previewed this on a Wide-Open Hour with gratifying listener response. You can hear it at 8 PM on Tuesday the 18th, and again at 7 PM on Sunday the 23rd.

You will note a fairly massive upheaval in program scheduling herein. The nightly news and commentator hour has been inverted. We believe that most of you will be better satisfied with this new arrangement. Try it for these two weeks, and then tell us your reaction.

You do not have to be a candidate for the Peace Corps to enjoy the informative 45 minutes on Monday the 17th at 8:15 PM or on Saturday the 22nd at 3:30 PM. Peace Corps concepts, finances, people, programs, criticisms, effects and hopeful future are thoroughly discussed.

On the 30th we begin a weekly commentary called HUMAN RELATIONS by Daniel Panger who has wide experience in social psychology ranging from the Stuyvesant Town case in New York City to probation work in Los Angeles County. He is currently consultant to the California FEPC.

about music

The BBC has recently offered two new series of programs which we will be broadcasting in the following weeks. Concerts from the festival of the International Society for Contemporary Music, held in London last spring, and tapes of the BBC Studio Concerts (live broadcast recitals) are scheduled in this Folio during the 7:00 p.m. concert on various dates. These programs contain a wide range of contemporary music, beginning with Arnold Schoenberg and including compositions by living composers representing all the contemporary schools.

BROADCAST HOURS: 7 a.m. to 12:00 midnight, seven days a week. Dates of future broadcasts appear in BOLD FACE, caps and parentheses. Example: (DECEMBER 30). Dates of original broadcasts in light face and in parentheses. Example: (December 30). Numbers in parentheses following listing of musical selections refer to time, in minutes.
